Samantha works closely with the executive leadership team of the Seattle Kraken to create a world-class franchise and meaningfully invest in the Pacific Northwest community.

Samantha and her husband Greg have two children.

DAVID BONDERMAN

David Bonderman is the founding owner of the Seattle Kraken and co-founder and Chairman of TPG, a leading global alternative asset firm. TPG manages more than $224billion in assets under management across a wide range of asset classes, including private equity, growth, impact investing, real estate, and market solutions.

David serves on the board of a number of private and public companies, as well as several philanthropic institutions, some of which include: Allogene Therapeutics, Inc.; The Rise Fund; The Rock and Roll Hall of Fame Foundation, the American Himalayan Foundation, The Wilderness Society, The Grand Canyon Trust, and funds the Wildcat Foundation.

He is a graduate of the University of Washington and magna cum laude graduate of Harvard Law School, 1966, where he was a Sheldon Fellow and a member of the Harvard Law Review.

David has 5 children and 3 grandchildren.

Since the franchise was awarded in 2018, the ownership group has followed through on its commitment to build a winning team and second-to-none facilities while meaningfully investing in the community.

The Kraken set a league record in just their second year with a 40-point increase in standing points from the first to second seasons, topping all 26 franchises that have joined the Original Six since 1967. In its third season, the team hosted the 2024 Winter Classic at T-Mobile Park in front of 47,000-plus fans, defeating the Stanley Cup champion Vegas Golden Knights in a 3-0 shutout.

Climate Pledge Arena, the team's home arena, was privately financed in a partnership between the Kraken and Oak View Group, delivering the city a winter sport and a home for live music and entertainment. It stands as the most sustainable arena in the world and the first to be declared net-zero carbon by the International Living Futures Institute.

Kraken Community Iceplex, the team headquarters, is a beacon for the growth of hockey in the region. With three rinks, the Iceplex welcomes more than 1 million visitors annually, and serves as a robust youth hockey program for girls and boys that ranked top-six among all states for growth during the 2023-24 season.

Samantha, David, and the ownership group are owners, alongside OVG, of the team's AHL franchise, the Coachella Valley Firebirds and Acrisure Arena. The 10,000-seat building in the desert has been filled for hockey and an impressive yearly schedule of concerts since opening in 2022. Additionally, the Firebirds won the Western Conference in both of their first two seasons.

Samantha and David believe the greatest privilege of being in sport is the opportunity to have a positive impact on your community. This is exemplified through One Roof Foundation, the philanthropic arm of the Kraken and Climate Pledge Arena. One Roof focuses on increasing access to play for all youth across the Pacific Northwest and ending youth homelessness.

In addition, Samantha and David introduced a highly popular program to donate $32,000 every home game to a local non-profit by honoring someone in our community who works to make us better. The Hero of the Deep program has donated more than $2.6 million to non-profit organizations of the honorees' choice.

The team recently entered a partnership with Seattle Public Schools and the City of Seattle to redevelop Memorial Stadium, a high school and community stadium. The new stadium will be a state-of-the-art multi-purpose venue for student athletics, education, arts, culture, entertainment, and community events for generations to come. This is a not-for-profit venture in line with the mission of the Foundation.

general INFORMATION

FAST FACTS

- All practices, morning skates and games are open to the media.
- Media requests should always go through the Kraken PR staff. Please do not reach out to players or management directly.
- Players that are injured/not skating are not obligated to meet with the media.

USEFUL LINKS

Seattle Kraken Press Room – All Kraken-specific materials live on the Kraken press site. Assets include daily clips, game notes, photos that are approved for media use and more. The application for game credentials also lives on this site's home page.

Seattle Kraken Media Dropbox – All media availabilities, whether from practice, morning skate or postgame, are uploaded here.

Kraken PR Twitter – In-game updates, stats, transactions and more can be found via the Kraken PR Twitter page (@SeattleKrakenPR). This is the best spot for the most up-to-date roster information as well as significant stats that may occur mid game.

Kraken PR Slack - The Seattle Kraken PR staff will be utilizing a Slack channel with the media in lieu of text or email chains. On the media Slack, the PR staff will communicate schedule changes, roster transactions and more. The Slack channel is also how the media can submit interview requests, specifically for post-practice and game scrums. Please reach out to a member of the Kraken PR staff to be added to the media Slack if you are not already.

media.nhl.com – The NHL media's site is the home for all things media. You can find game notes, rosters, game summaries and event summaries for each game by clicking the 'games' tab on the top bar. Daily stats packs, the NHL pronunciation guide and team media guides are all also accessible via the 'downloads' tab. Each team also has their own page on the media site, which includes headshots, pronunciations and contact info for their PR staffs. If you need a media site log in and do not already have one, please reach out to Kraken PR.

nhl.com/stats – This is where you can find all NHL stats, both current and historic. The site includes stats for skaters, goalies and teams and all stats can be filtered by team, year and more. To find Kraken stats, click on the 'Skaters' tab and selected the Kraken from the 'Team' drop down menu. If there is a stat you are interested in looking up, but are unsure how, please contact Kyle Shohara.

hockey-reference.com – This site has pages for each team and NHL player, past or present. It has as number of stats that can be found on the NHL site but is particularly useful if you are looking for splits – how each player or team stacks up against each opponent.

eliteprospects.com – Elite prospects has profiles for not only NHL players, but players at the junior and college levels. If you're looking for comprehensive stats for prospects, Elite Prospects is a good place to start. For NHL players, Elite prospects is useful for seeing their stats in international competitions, awards they have won or any relation they may have to other players (for example, you can see on Brandon Tanev's page that he is the brother of NHLer Chris Tanev).

HOME PRACTICES

If in Seattle, the Kraken will typically practice at 10:30 a.m. local time, unless it is a day after a game, in which they will practice at 11 a.m. All home practices will take place at Kraken Community Iceplex unless specified otherwise. The length of practice varies depending on the day and can last anywhere from 30 minutes to an hour.

Sharing line combinations, injury updates, photos and videos from practice is all permissible.

Head Coach Dan Bylsma and Kraken players will be made available to the media after practice in the team's locker room. Media members are encouraged to go to the locker room as soon as the first player leaves the ice. Any requests for one-on-one interviews should be made as far advance as possible to ensure a greater chance they can be fulfilled.

The Kraken PR staff will take requests for players, but the media is not limited to speaking with just those players while in the locker room. Every player in the locker room is available to be interviewed unless otherwise specified by the Kraken PR staff.

MORNING SKATE - HOME GAMES

The Kraken will hold a morning skate prior to each home game at 10:30 a.m. at Kraken Community Iceplex. If the game is on the second day of a back-to-back, the Kraken may not hold a morning skate and will instead hold media availability in the early evening prior to that night's game at Climate Pledge Arena.

The media is encouraged to arrive at KCI by 10 a.m. local time in the event that morning skate is optional. A member of the Kraken PR staff will communicate if a skate is optional to the media as soon as it has been decided on. Head Coach Dan Bylsma and players will be made available to the media at the conclusion of morning skate or after their team meeting if morning skate is optional. Morning skate media availabilities will be held in the locker room at Kraken Community Iceplex.

Media requests – whether for a scrum or a one-on-one – should be made to Kraken no later than 10 a.m. local time to ensure that all requests can be fulfilled. Please note that media requests on a game day should be limited to questions/content for that night's game only. Any requests for non-game day content should be made on practice days.

POSTGAME - HOME GAMES

A member of the Kraken PR staff will reach out to the media during the third period to take scrum requests. Requests can be adjusted up until the end of the game but may be more difficult the later the request is made. Postgame media availability for players and Dan Bylsma will be held in the main locker room at CPA. Similarly, to morning skates, questions the games. One-on-ones will not be permitted during postgame media.

VISITING TEAM MEDIA

Visiting teams will hold morning skates at CPA at 11:30 a.m. Morning skates may be optional or cancelled, especially if the team is playing the second game of a back-to-back. Please note that with the Kraken skating at a different venue, there is a high chance some visiting teams may elect to skate early, and any schedule questions should go to the visiting team's PR department to ensure accuracy. Visiting teams can change their schedule at a moment's notice, so it is best to reach out directly to that team.

Media requests for the visiting team should be made directly to that team's PR department. Please reach out to Kraken PR or visit the NHL's media site if you need their contact info.

CREDENTIALS

Media members who do not have a season credential can request a single-game credential by visiting the Kraken press site. Credentials will be approved based on need and availability in the press box. Media members will be notified if their credential request has been approved 48 hours before the game.

If approved, credentials can be picked up the day of the game at the Climate Pledge Arena media entrance. The media entrance is located at the southwest corner of CPA, just north of Alaska Airlines Atrium, and is open from 8 a.m. until 8:30 p.m. Please note that these times may change in the event that the game does not have a 7 p.m. start time. Media will not be permitted to enter the building after 8:30 p.m. unless specifically approved by a member of the Kraken PR staff.

Please reach out to a member of the Kraken PR staff if you need a single-day credential for a practice or other Kraken event.

If you have a season credential, we ask that you RSVP to each game so we can plan for your attendance. RSVP forms will be sent out by a Kraken PR staff member.

KRAKEN ROAD GAMES

One member of the Kraken PR staff will travel with the team when they are on the road. All media requests that pertain to the road trip can be made through them.

Times and locations for Kraken road practices may vary depending on the day and arena availability. Media for practices, morning skates and postgame will be held in the visiting locker room of the home building. The traveling PR rep. will coordinate with traveling media for all requests.

If you plan to cover a Kraken road game, please notify Kyle Shohara and he will include you with our team credential requests.

GAME NOTES

The team's game notes will be sent out the evening prior to every game, unless the team is playing a back-to-back, in which case they will be sent out after the conclusion of the first game. The email will include the schedule for morning skate, media procedures and which PR rep is traveling (if applicable). If you would like to be added to our game notes distribution list, please reach out to Kyle Shohara.

Game notes will include both teams' rosters, stats, game-by-game, notes and more. Media notes are provided by each team' PR departments while the rest is auto populated. Game notes are the best place to find all relevant stats for the upcoming game. Please note that when game notes are sent out, they will not include games played that evening, so some stats and rankings may change. Game notes can be downloaded at any point from the NHL media site.

ONE ROOF FOUNDATION

ONEROOFFOUNDATION.ORG | 𝕏 @ONEROOFFDN

One Roof Foundation is the philanthropic arm of the Seattle Kraken and Climate Pledge Arena. We invite our fans and our community to join forces with One Roof to ensure that all young people in our region have a roof over their heads, access to play, and clean air to breathe

VISION

We envision a more equitable society and a healthy planet where all people can realize a brighter future.

MISSION

We advance equity and sustainability by increasing opportunities to thrive for our most vulnerable young people and communities.

WE BELIEVE

- The well-being of one individual is connected to the well-being of every other individual; that homelessness, racism, and inequity of opportunity, don't affect only certain communities, but all of us.
- The health of humanity is inextricably tied to the health of our planet.
- We are all in this together, under One Roof.

OUR PILLARS

ACCESS TO PLAY

Children in under-resourced neighborhoods have fewer opportunities to play sports and benefit from teamwork, collaboration, resilience, and improved mental health.

Sports and play help kids stay physical and mentally healthy, develop social and emotional skills, and succeed in school, work, and life. But while all kids want to play, the opportunity to participate is largely dictated by zip code, household income, and primary language spoken at home. One Roof Foundation and the Seattle Kraken leverage our resources to break down barriers to all forms of sport so that all kids can play. We aim to ensure all children can participate in sports by funding multisport courts, donating equipment, and providing financial assistance for on-ice programming. With your support, we can continue to level the playing field to create access and opportunity in sport and life for marginalized and BIPOC youth and communities.

ENDING YOUTH HOMELESSNESS

2,000 Seattle Public School Students are currently experiencing homelessness.

No one grows up wanting to be homeless. In Washington alone over 40,000 public school students were homeless or facing housing insecurity last year. Founded in 1974, YouthCare was one of the first shelters to serve runaway and homeless youth on the West Coast. YouthCare now provides shelter, housing, education, and employment training to over 1,500 deserving young people a year so that they have the hope, skills, and self-confidence needed to thrive. One Roof Foundation, Seattle Kraken, and Climate Pledge Arena raise funds for YouthCare, amplify YouthCare's message to our fans and the broader community, and provide job training, internships, and employment opportunities at our different facilities, to help move the needle in the fight against youth homelessness.

ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE

Youth in Seattle's Duwamish Valley are 3x more likely to be hospitalized with asthma than in other Seattle neighborhoods.

Low income and predominantly BIPOC neighborhoods in our region face a higher degree of environmental risk factors such as proximity to polluted waterways, busy highways, and industrial sites. The negative impacts are compounded by the lack of adequate access to safe fields, courts, and open spaces. One Roof Foundation partners with, supports, and elevates the voices of communities disproportionately impacted by climate change by providing learning opportunities for youth, investing in capital projects, supporting families displaced by flooding, funding events and capacity building programs, and conducting neighborhood cleanups.

KRAKEN HOCKEY NETWORK BROADCAST TEAM

JOHN FORSLUND

John Forslund is the play-by-play announcer for the Seattle Kraken's TV broadcasts on The Kraken Hockey Network and is known for coining the iconic phrase "That's Kraken Hockey, Baby!" He also currently serves as the play-by-play voice for NHL on TNT and SportsUSA NHL Radio and is the lead voice for Amazon Prime's Monday Night Hockey.

During his tenure with the Hurricanes, Forslund was named the North Carolina Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sports Media Association in both 2018 and 2019. In addition to his responsibilities with the Hurricanes, Forslund also served as the play-by-play announcer for ESPN National Hockey Night, NHL on Versus, NBCSN and NBC Sports. His broadcasting career has also seen him call ACC and SEC men's basketball games on Fox Sports Net. Before joining the Hurricanes, he was the voice of the AHL's Springfield Indians, winning the 1989 Ken McKenzie Award for the AHL's Top Publicist/Broadcaster.

Today he is a member of the NHL's Player Inclusion Coalition.

Lukan also contributes to Kraken digital channels and for the Seattle Kraken app. Before her time with the Kraken organization, Lukan covered the NHL, the Columbus Blue Jackets and Ohio State men's and women's hockey for The Athletic while also spending time with Fox Sport's Ohio.

EDDIE OLCZYK

Eddie Olczyk serves as one of the Kraken's TV color analysts and also appears on national game broadcasts for TNT as the network's lead analyst.

Prior to coming to the Kraken, he spent 15 seasons with the Chicago Blackhawks as their TV color analyst. Before joining the broadcast booth, Olczyk spent 16 seasons in the NHL playing for the Chicago Blackhawks, Toronto Maple Leafs, Winnipeg Jets (now Utah Hockey Club), New York Rangers, Los Angeles Kings and Pittsburgh Penguins. He was a member of the Rangers 1994 Stanley Cup-winning team and was inducted in the United States Hockey Hall of Fame in 2012.

LINDA COHN

Cohn joins KHN as a host for the pre, post and intermission shows. She began her sportscasting career in 1981 and spent 1989-1992 in Seattle as a sports anchor and reporter at a local network before moving to ESPN where she still works today as the longest-tenured SportsCenter anchor.

As a senior at Newfield (N.Y.) High School, she served as the goalie on the boy's ice hockey team and in college on the SUNY Oswego women's ice hockey team where she received a bachelor of arts degree in communications.

PIPER SHAW

Piper Shaw has served as rinkside reporter for the Seattle Kraken since the inaugural season.

Before coming to Seattle, Shaw served as a reporter, host, and content producer for Wisconsin Badger Hockey on Fox Sports Wisconsin for three seasons. She also covered high school sports for the network, in addition to broadcasting a variety of college athletics for the Big East Conference on BEDN, NBC Sports Chicago, and FS1. Shaw began her broadcasting career as a news reporter at WMTV NBC15 News in Madison, WI.

IAN FURNESS

Furness joins the KHN team as a host after being a fixture in Seattle Sports Media for almost two decades. His on-air career began as the voice of the Seattle Thunderbirds before he moved to the same role with the Tri-City Americans. In total, he's served as announcer for over 1500 games in the American Hockey League, International Hockey League and Western Hockey League.

Born and raised in Seattle, Furness has covered the Seahawks, Trailblazers and Kraken and hosts a daily Seattle sports radio show on KJR 93.3.

KJR RADIO BROADCAST TEAM

EVERETT FITZHUGH

Everett Fitzhugh is the play-by-play announcer for the Kraken's radio broadcasts on KJR. Prior to coming to Seattle, Fitzhugh spent five seasons with the Cincinnati Cyclones of the East Coast Hockey League, a developmental pro league for the NHL. During that time, he held the dual role as the Cyclones' director of media relations and broadcasting.

In addition to his role in Cincinnati, Fitzhugh served as a guest-broadcaster in his first NHL game for the Washington Capitals. He also was part of the broadcast crew for the 2018 CCM/ECHL All-Star Classic. During the Kraken's inaugural season, Fitzhugh joined J.T. Brown in the booth to become part of the first all-Black broadcast team for an NHL game.

AL KINISKY

Kinisky who provides color commentary on the Kraken's radio broadcast, brings four decades of hockey experience as a player, coach, and color commentator to KJR. Originally born and raised in the Vancouver, BC area, Kinisky has lived in the Seattle area for over three decades where he and his wife have raised their two boys.

He first came to Seattle to play for the Seattle Thunderbirds in 1989 after spending a year in Northern Saskatchewan playing for the Nipawin Hawks. With the Thunderbirds, he totaled 83 points (27 goals, 56 assists) in 149 regular-season games. In 1990, he was drafted by the Philadelphia Flyers in the 3rd round, 52nd overall.

On October 1, 2022, the Seattle Kraken introduced the newest member of the team to fans: Buoy, a six-foot-tall blue sea troll and the official Kraken mascot.

ABOUT BUOY

- Buoy is a sea troll from Seattle, who lives in the caverns of Climate Pledge Arena.
- Buoy loves hockey and people, not necessarily in that order.
- Buoy eats lots of different foods but shark with a sprig of maple leaf is the ultimate meal.
- Other than cheering on the Kraken, Buoy's next favorite thing is music. It's said that Buoy once jammed with Mudhoney at the Crocodile!!
- People are drawn to Buoy's fun-loving spirit, funky dance moves, skating talents and endless energy.
- Sometimes you can find Buoy trekking along the Burke Gillman trail and making a quick detour to visit the Fremont Troll, Buoy's uncle.
- We believe Buoy previously met the deep-sea creature from which our name originates. There is a touch of Kraken magic in Buoy's hockey flow.
